

2.2 Coordination with other sections

1) Coordination with career support section

- Announcements from the career support section are displayed in the library as one of the activities for promoting the use of the library for job hunting, which was set as a library goal of this year.
- The number of job-hunting materials and the accesses of e-books increased by distributing leaflets at every job-hunting course or seminar.

3) Coordination with SIT junior and senior high school

- This effort is good for students who have become familiar with the university library's environment, and helps students to imagine campus life in SIT and decide their future course/plan through reading specialized books.
- We advertise this effort to public.
- We had a library tour for junior and senior high school students twice on 13th and 17th of February. Participants:149 2nd grade senior high school students

4) Collaboration with the lecture in Omiya campus “Tsukuru(Create)”

- Supported the “Create world’s greatest library” lecture for 1st grade students of the college of systems engineering and science. The lecture was held by an outside lecturer on 19th and 26th April, and the library supported the lecture 12 times.
- The student’s exhibition on their activities at the lecture “Tsukuru” at the library provided a good opportunity to communicate with students who belong to other faculties. Also, they were interested to the library materials that we showed at the exhibition.
