2) Book Garden

The library has held the Book Garden since 2015, in response to students' requests such as "I'd like to attend the Book Garden in between classes".

- We held the Book Garden for the purpose of improving library usability through the selection of books by students and teachers.
- Books selected by students and teachers are often used.

Participant's comment

- There were so many good books to choose from, it was fun.
- There were many types of books I don't usually see, which broadened my horizons.
- I was happy to have the opportunity to actually convey the kind of book I wanted.
- There were a lot more books than I expected, and they were all very interesting.
- Thank you for introducing me to a new book!

3) SIT Library Collection

- The number of volumes at the end of FY2024 is as follows.

Library Collections

"Repair work reports of National Treasure and Important Cultural Property building" Collection
Holdings: approx. 2,200 books.

"Railway" Collection
Including history and photographs, both national and international. Holdings: approx. 4,000 books.

"Company / School History" Collection
Company and school histories are available, including those of popular employers. Holdings: approx. 1,200 books.

Why are they in the library ??

In the early 1990s, a professor from SIT who researched important cultural property buildings retired and donated his work to the library to help students learn about architecture.

He also registered with the Agency for Cultural Affairs and even changed his name to the library upon retirement. The library receives about 20 books a year on important cultural property repair from the organization in charge, via the Agency for Cultural Affairs.
