Encounter in the Library!!

Books are not the only thing Library has to offer

International Students' Workshop kicked off

One day in December, first exchange workshop between International students and Japanese students was held at Japanese style room called "Shibaura-an" in Toyosu campus.

After introducing themselves with a mixture of anticipation and dread, they discussed what activities are suitable for the Library considering to be a location for community exchanges.

As they got to know each other, there were many opinions such as "I'd love to experience Japanese culture", "Not only get to know Japanese culture but also I want you know about my country as well as our culture." They communicated each other with smile.

As an outcome of the discussion, they decided to introduce their own culture in relays.

Next event will be "Let's try on Kimono" as part of learning experiences of Japanese culture.

Today's Book presented by student staff

Currently at Toyosu Library, a student staff recommends Today's Book on a whiteboard.

December 12 is "Kanji Day". On this occasion, we recommend you a book about kanji kentei (Japanese Kanji Aptitude Test) titled "Kanji Kentei (Japanese Kanji Aptitude Test) learning from character conversion".

Japan Kanji Aptitude Testing Foundation has designated December 12 as "Kanji Day" after the resemblance of the number 12 to the Japanese word for 'good character' written in Hiragana.

January 22 is "Jazz Day". On this occasion, we recommend you "English pronunciation learning from JAZZ". It's so cool if you could sing Jazz in English, isn't it?

On the whiteboard, there's plenty of pleasant information such as recommended daily book, content and location of the book, Today's Boyaki (complaints) and so on. It helps you to encounter with various Books.

5 students are working at Toyosu Library, and 4 students are working at Omiya Library as student staffs.
