

01. World's Libraries (Portugal)

Universidade NOVA de Lisboa
<https://www.unl.pt/>

Universidade NOVA de Lisboa was founded in 1973 and is the youngest of Lisbon's three state universities. Nine departments have their own libraries and there are about 31,000 books in total.

We had an interview with Mr. Shingo Suzuki (System Engineering and Science Course), who joined the PBL (Project-based learning) program held at the Universidade NOVA de Lisboa in July 2018.

Period : Aug. 8th - 20th , 2018

The number of participants :
 SIT students 15, Local students 12.

A multinational and multidiscipline group of students were learning systematic ways of thinking, methods, and system management using integrative problem-solving.

The weather in Portugal was comfortable since they had less humidity and sunny days. Since Portugal faces the sea, seafood was good. I recommend it.

03. Library news

We offer useful guidance for research and job hunting.

The library offers a wide variety of guidance such as "Report tool" and "How to use database for job hunting". We are flexible in adjusting the contents as requests regardless of the number and date. Let's apply via the service counter at the library or library HP.

Participants' comments:

It's a good thing that I got this guidance. It was very useful for my job hunting.

Now I understand the effective way of making a literature list for my research. I always had difficulty with it. I'll use this method in my future study.

I could get theses I needed for my study, and the guidance was very easy to understand.

New books corner was extended at the 1st floor!

We extended the "New arrival book corner B/C" in response to your feedback, which said "we love the new arrival book corner". It's very popular with students, as they don't need to go up to 2nd or 3rd floors to find new books.

Hot novels to read! Book Store Grand Prize (Hon-ya Taisho) novels are on display!

Books selected by book stores' staff across the country as part of the "Book Store Grand Prize (Hon-ya Taisho)" are now on display at the right side of the entrance. Users commented saying "I am happy to read books which are much-talked about", and it is very popular every year. People who have specific books that they want to read, please visit the corner as soon as possible.

We have a small feature space for Le Corbusier

In commemoration of the "Le Corbusier" exhibition, we offer a small feature space at bookshelf No.67. Posters, brochures, and a mini book about "Le Corbusier plans" are available via library HP. Please visit the HP.
