SIT libraries started a Home Delivery Service for book lending and photocopying from June to prevent infection of COVID-19, and we have received great feedback from a number of users.

Home Delivery Service is very useful for my assignment since I cannot visit the library.

T.Y

Since I am a first-year student I got nervous at the beginning, but I learned how to use the library services through online library guidance and I've used the services many times.

S.N

I sent inquiries about how to lend a book several times via smartphone, and I have been introduced to the service by staff members of the library.

Utilization trend of Home Delivery Service for book lending

(Research period: 1st June, 2020~)

Actual number of users: 1,497 / Total number of lending books: 10,238

By grade

By classification

By department

Top lending fields

Technical books		Number of lent
1	Computer programming etc.	475
2	Urban planning etc.	241
3	Artificial intelligence etc.	204
4	Data processing etc.	190
5	Architectural plan etc.	178
General books		Number of lent
1	English exam (TOEIC etc.)	402
2	Novel (Paperback)	304
3	Novel (Hardcover)	203

I hope this useful service will continue as long as possible since it seems difficult to visit libraries for the duration.

A.K

I've used Home Delivery Service many times since the service launched. Thank to this service, I can continue my research with many study materials during the COVID-19 circumstance. I really appreciate that.

H.S

I thank your constantly prompt action. I'm grateful that the loan period will be 3-weeks.

S.S

I'm a heavy user of the Home Delivery Service. Thank you for your prompt action.

02. Library News

With COVID-19

In Omiya library, we set up the COVID-19 area in front of the entrance. There are various materials getting to the bottom of COVID-19, knowledge of the infection, measures against infection, its history and so on.

It is a good chance to present materials and it might help to further your consideration of how to cope with the current climate. Please make good use of this.

Expand the usage of e-journals. “New Architectural Data”

<http://lib.shibaura-it.ac.jp/2020/10/21/13783>

You have been able to use online New Architectural Data since 12th October, 2020. You can search for articles of “New Architecture” and “Feature Housing” magazines. Since we are going to release back issues sequentially, please make good use of these resources for your class and research activities.

New section “Let’s take a walk around TOYOSU”

We show the great charms of Toyosu, such as sightseeing spots, recommended foods, history and so on. We believe that Toyosu is very familiar with you, but you may find out something new about Toyosu.

The pick-up! TOEIC section

At the TOEIC section on the left side of Shibaura library’s entrance, popular materials like “Kikutan series” are displayed. Please use this for the examination, since there are various materials corresponding to the score!
